What halo-chamber is?

Halo-chamber is not an innovation, but a well-known medical facility with pronounced therapeutic benefit.

Floor, walls and ceiling of the chamber are covered with salt blocks. This created certain microclimate with beneficial effect on human organism.

Salt therapy rooms are indicated for:

- chronic diseases of ENT organs and respiratory tract;
- skin diseases;
- hypertension;
- diseases of nervous system.

In addition, the halo-chamber is recommended for general immune system reinforcement.

However, in order the chamber has proper microclimate, it should be designed and constructed by experts.
